Why the Y?

"The Y gives you the opportunity to do something for yourself"
-John W.

"The Y was instrumental to me to become immersed in the El Paso community."
-Ellen G.

"The Y saved my life."
-Jim L.

"The Y has created a chain reaction of positive activity."
-Jorge R.

"I can work out at the Y without feeling guilty and receive quality child care."
-Kendell J.

"The Y feels like home, a second family"
-George M.

"Swimming at the Y is the only thing that keeps me alive."
-Regina A.

"I signed up in the summer with the boys but stayed for my friends."
-Sandra O.

"The Y is cheaper than therapy. We cry together, laugh together and we pick up each other."

-The Coffee Girls

"If I wasn't at the Y, cancer would have taken the best part of me ... cancer would have won."
-Jesus C.

The mission of the YMCA is to put Christian principles into practice through programs that build healthy spirit, mind and body for all.
