PROGRAM INFORMATION:

- Team Placement is FIRST COME, FIRST SERVE
- Once a team reaches capacity, we cannot add players
- Practices Range Monday-Friday 5pm - 8pm
- Practices take place at your home facility (Loya 13U and selected 11U Basketball will practice off-site)
- Games will take place Friday evenings OR Saturday depending on your child's sport/age bracket
- Travel between branches will be required on game days depending on sport/age bracket
- Game schedule will be released the first week of practices
- The YMCA will NOT provide refunds or prorated fees for missed practices or games
- Please review Parent Handbooks on sportsmanship and regulations

CHEERLEADING:

Cheerleading will be a team of 30 participants, cheerleaders will showcase their skills to determine their level.

Level 1: Tumbling skills include cartwheels, round-offs, forward rolls, backward rolls, front walkovers, back walkovers, and combinations of the skills. Flyers can not be higher than prep level.

Level 2: Tumbling skills include standing back handsprings, round-off back handsprings, and combinations of skills. Two-legged stunts are allowed on extended level and one-legged stunts don't need a brace on prep level.

Level 3: Tumbling skills include series of standing back handsprings, round-off tucks, front tucks, aerials, and combinations of skills. One-legged stunts are allowed on extended level and do not need a brace.

SOCCER:

7U and 9U Soccer at Loya and Bowling branches will be outdoors. Refunds will not be given due to any inclement weather conditions. Teams will have to travel to either Loya or Bowling depending how many teams develop. Lights will be on in the evenings for practices, games will be late mornings/early afternoon for the warmer portion of the day.

TOTS:

Tots program is an introduction to sports and requires parent involvement. This program is ran by a designated YMCA staff. Tots will be able to rotate between Basketball, Hockey and Soccer.
